Guess I have to say goodbye
And kiss you for one last time

Why do we have to end like this?
Can't bare the pain and loneliness
Why do we have to let it go?
When everything seemed so true

Now I'm suffering from this endless pain
Oh, why
Now I can't comprehend
Why you left me behind
Why you left me behind

How could you do this to me?
When you have promise to stay
I, I was too blind to see
That you're not meant for me

You left me here
Without knowing why
I ask you to hold on
But you pushed me away
