Understanding is so hard to plain
Not a preview settled beforehand
The inflection on your mood is breaking
Tomorrow is a promise

Did you wake up just to see it coming?
Underwritten until the end of days
You tie the future through the eyes of someone
Tomorrow is a promise

(chorus)
Not any time, not evermore
Tomorrow is a promise
Not any time, not evermore
The undertake is over
The undertake is over

Ever fall is evergreen, I foresse
If you last to pick the falling leaves
No good or bad or true predictions
Tomorrow is a promise

(chorus)

With nothing more than uncertainty
I can comit, I can swear on it
Something, watever it may be
I can promis, you can tell it

Tomorrow is a promise

(chorus)
