Bury yourself cut the rope
Because this ship is going down
Wasting so much time on things
That don't matter until now

And I will cry and I will bleed
And I will make sure that you've seen
You can leave this all behind
(And I want to take back what is mine)

Save yourself now
This ship is going down
As you're drowning in the water
(As you're drowning in the water)
This ship is going down
She's my treasure to be found
While our heavy hearts pull us apart
(I'll watch you)

Can you feel this extra tension in the air
Dying's never felt so good before
Your flesh begins to tear
It gets so dark this wounded heart
That burns as the sky turns black
So cut these chains to break my legs
(And stab me in the back)

Save yourself now
This ship is going down
As you're drowning in the water
(As you're drowning in the water)
This ship is going down
She's my treasure to be found
While our heavy hearts pull us apart
(I'll watch you)

Save yourself now
This ship is going down
Drowning in the water
No one will save you now
Save yourself now
This ship is going down

Drowning in the water
No one will save you now
(Save yourself)

Save your,
Save your,
Save your,
Save your,
Save your-
Self.
