All that's left, just remains of human decay
Traces of extinction in a world of death

You can not fight, you can not hide
But still you try to free yourself
You can not run, not overcome
Your world is gone and there is nothing you can save

Powerless human being, defending a dying world
So this is your fantasy of God's creation?

There is no way out, this is the kingdom of pain
This is where you die, here in the kingdom of pain

Can't you see the truth? Your God is dead
Is this a dream? Look down deep inside yourself

You can not fight, you can not hide
But still you try to free yourself
You can not run, not overcome
Your world is gone and there is nothing you can save

There is no way out, this is the kingdom of pain
This is where you die, here in the kingdom of pain

You can not fight, you can not hide
But still you try to free yourself
You can not run, not overcome
Your world is gone and there is nothing you can save

There is no way out, this is the kingdom of pain
This is where you die, here in the kingdom of pain
