With all of this I know now
Everything inside of my head
It all just goes to show how
Nothing I know changes me at all
Again I waited for this to change
To tear the world in two
Another night with her
But I've always wanted you

Use me Holly come on and use me
You know where we go
Use me Holly come on and use me
We go where we know

With all of this I feel now
Everything inside of my heart
It all just seems to be how
Nothing I feel pulls at me at all
Again I waited for this to pull apart
To break my time in two
Another night with her
But I've always wanted you

Use me Holly come on and use me
We know where we go
Use me Holly come on and use me
We go where we know

She's all I need
She's all I dream
She's all I've always wanted
She's all I need
She's all I dream
She's all I've always wanted you
I've always wanted you
I've always wanted you

Use me Holly come on and use me
We know where we go
Use me Holly come on and use me
We go where we know

She's all I need
She's all I dream
She's all I've always wanted
She's all I need
She's all I dream
She's all I've always wanted you

And all again I wait for this
To fill a whole, to shake the sky in two
Another night with her
I've always wanted you
Another night with her
But I've always wanted you
