Never found out why you left him
But this answer begs that question
Too blind to see tomorrow
To broke to beg or borrow
Young and stupid
Left wide open
Hearts are wasted
Lives are broken

One more point of contention
I need some intervention
Approach with fake intentions
Betray my short attention
Span the distance
Bridge the border
Beg forgiveness
Round the corner

Everytime I look for you
The sun goes down
And I stumble when this
Whole thing runs aground
I left another message
You are never around
But everytime I look for you
The sun goes down once more
Will the last one out
Please shut the door

More time apart will give you
A few more months to argue
Is this too much to live through?
It always seem too far to Drive the point home
Send more letters
Pray tomorrow
Ends up better

Every time I look for you
The sun goes down
And I stumble when this

You are never around
But every time I look for you
The sun goes down once more
Will the last one out
Please shut the door

I never did do anything
That she asked
I never let what happened stay
In the past
I never did quite understand
What she meant
In spite of everything

Every time I look for you
The sun goes down
You are never around
But every time I look for you

And I stumble when this
You are never around
But every time I look for you
