He pauses shaving and he tells himself
That he is the bomb
She has her curlers set
Her credit cards are paying the funds

He's not that old, I've been told a strong sexual goal
They go out every day
She goes every way, oh yeah
They don't even care at all

She's open waiting for more
And I know he's only looking to score
And it is way too unhealthy often they've typically
Been starved for attention before

She smokes a dozen
And he doesn't seem to notice the smell
He took the seat off his own bike
Because the way that it felt

He wants to bone, this I know she is ready to blow
They go out every night
His pants are super tight, oh yeah
They don't even care at all

She's open waiting for more
And I know he's only looking to score
And it is way too unhealthy often they've typically
Been starved for attention before

She's open waiting for more
And I know he's only looking to score
And it is way too unhealthy often they've typically
Been starved for attention before
