Strange view of this
Untimely scene
You walk she cries
Slowly

And I guess I should know better(better yeah)
Than to think that its alright (alright)
She'll just kiss and make it all up
She'll still cry tonight

Teenage side road
Thats all she is to you
Dinner, flowers
I guess you've paid you're dues

And I guess I should know better (better yeah)
Than to think that it's alright (better yeah)
She'll just kiss and make it all up
She'll still cry tonight

You think it's fine
'Cause you know that she trusts me now
You think
Alright
Alright

Next week, break up
Another one bites the dust
Hope your happy but I know she's not
And I wish that she knew better (better yeah)
Than to fall for a jerk like you (jerk like you)
But she'll be back in your arms in a month
Not that I know man, But its just a hunch
Maybe she'll even sit with you at lunch
She'll still cry tonight
She'll still cry tonight
