"Shut the fuck up", she said
I'm goin' fuckin' deaf
You're always too loud
Everythin's too loud
Now that all my friends left
This place is fuckin' dead
I wanna move out
When can we move out?
This shit has got to stop

I'll run away
(Run away)

"Get the fuck up", she said
Your life is meaningless
It's goin' nowhere
(Nowhere)
You're goin' nowhere
(Nowhere)
"You're just a fuck up", she said
I'll live alone instead
She said, "You don't care"
(You don't care)
I know I don't care
(I know I don't care)

I'll never ask permission from you
Fuck off, I'm not listenin' to you
I'm not comin' in
I'm never goin' to come back home

I got too fucked up again
And passed out on the plane
Tried to forget you
(Forget you)
I can't forget you
(I can't forget you)
No sleep on this flight
I'll think about the nights
We had to get through
(We had to get through)
How did we get through?

(How did we get through?)

I'll never ask permission from you
Fuck off, I'm not listenin' to you
I'm not comin' home
I'm never goin' to come back home
I'll run away

I think it's time that I should leave
I think it's time that I should leave
I think it's time that I should leave
I think it's time that I should leave

I'll never ask permission from you
Fuck off, I'm not listenin' to you
I'm not comin' home
I'm never goin' to come back home
I'll run away

I think it's time for me to leave
(I'll run away)
I think it's time for me to leave
(I'll run away)
I think it's time for me to leave
(I'll run away)
I think it's time for me to leave
