"Let It Go"

A lot of things can look quite pretty
Some smiling faces want to make you cry
It will make you bleed if you let it
It feels good now but it will make you die
I know it feels good, so good
I know it feels good but

You've got to let go to say goodbye
You've got to let go to say goodbye

Tastes so sweet like the softest dream
You say you'd die without it but I doubt it
It'll turn your laughter into a scream
And cut you up and never think about it
I know it feels good, so good
I know it feels good but

You've got to let go to say goodbye
You've got to let go to say goodbye
You've got to let go to say goodbye
You've got to let it go
