When the feeling gets me high
They know just what's in store, cause they've heard it all before

Confused by all the questions I begin to lie
No matter what I say, no matter what I do
Baby just ignore it - none of it is true

Cause I ain't looking for love
This is a fling, you don't mean a thing
I ain't looking for love
All and all the week

It's a fucked up place but to me it's all the same
In this small town everybody knows my name
I get sick as hell, and totally insane
But not always to blame

I'm not happy I'm not sad.
I'm used on have to have those feelings I sometimes wish I had
I know I drink too much and also that its bad
But that's the way I live
;(missing)
;(missing)
Live by the public!

I ain't looking for love
This is a fling, you don't mean a thing
I ain't looking for love
All and all the week

It's a fucked up place but to me it's all the same
In this small town everybody knows my name
I get sick as hell, and totally insane
But not always to .. blame!

When the feeling gets me high (When the feeling gets him high)
They know just what's in store, cause they've heard it
all before

Confused by all the questions I begin to lie

No matter what I say, no matter what I do
Baby just ignore it - none of it is true.

I ain't looking for love
This is a fling, you don't mean a thing
I ain't looking for love
All and all the week

It's a fucked up place but to me it's all the same
In this small town everybody knows my name
I get sick as hell, and totally insane
But not always to blame!
