So I got my hair and shaped up my act for a while I even fooled myself with something I'm not I even started out to be a class act Always had the opportunity to do what I wanted

But somewhere along the way, I became the person I am today
The reason is I got bored
The reason is I got so bored

Well I met a girl and fell in love with her And in my mind I thought that she was the one I've been waiting for
She said I want to be with you, I wanna be with you, lets make it happen
No wonder she started to cry, when I closed the door and said goodbye

The reason is I got bored
The reason is I got so bored

The reason is I got bored
The reason is I got so bored

I have done so many things, and some of them are done quite good
But sooner or later it ends up the same way: I give up before I shoot

The reason is I get bored
The reason is I get so bored

The reason is I get bored
The reason is I get so bored
