Three is evil
The most evil of all the numbers
Coarse and hateful
Full of unrest and neglect
(Hey!)
When they get here
You become someone else
Cruel and distant
A Cavalier to my Roundhead

And as you make
Your pretty speech
(Hey!)
I seethe
(Like Vesuvius)

With reason drowned by toxic thoughts
I'm going to the dark side 'cause...

Sometimes I want to hurt you x8

I want reparations
The street to run with your blood
I want the limelight back
I want it back

There is no reason to pretend
That we are closer than this
(Hey!)
For I know that you know that I know that you know
I would rather claw out your eyes

With reason drowned...
Sometimes I want to hurt you...
I want reparations...

Sometimes I want to hurt you...
I want reparations...
