Spending all my time on the road

Hardly answering my cell phone

Catch me if you can

(I) have no other choice

But to impose you this new lifestyle

Everyone knows I don't used to

Forget my friends I don't feel good when

They don't count on me

Thinking I'm selfish

My lack of presence don't suck that much

My curtains wide open

Light is everywhere

Take a rest if you want

I'm living the best time of my life

Don't close my eyes

Light is everywhere

Take a rest if you want

I found my way in that traffic jam

DON'T ASK ME TO MAKE A CHOICE!

NO I'm not here

YOU should call back

DON'T blame me for this
I wish I could avoid my...
Sincerely, sincerely
Why don't you trust me
I feel as stupid as you
I miss you too
You mustn't be surprised anymore
You all know what are the words
Sorry leave your message once again...
And if I decided to travel
Around the world with no return
Would it had been worst?
Or did you understand
That my dreams are not here but out there!
I'm in what is called an in-between
That's why maybe they don't feel at ease
I ain't gone for good
Neither in the hood
Don't think you can mess with my girlfriend
What if I turn to this state of mind
I live like that, am I not acting right?
