(music: Achondo / Elbelman ; lyrics: Elbelman)

(solo : Elbelman)

Looking to the red sky and I can see your eyes
I keep your sword that you are ever fight, I'll never forget your smile
Can listen your prays before a fight, I can listen your voice...

The volition of the gods makes my hart brake
They know you are my life for it they keeping you Alive in a sanctuary and I'm coming for you
Long road of pain are waiting for me
Blesses and my sword are my only friends

Chorus:

Behind the mirror is the sanctuary ...shout again, spirit of the war...

(solo : Achondo)

The valley of death can't scare me
Battle for you is my only way to see the light that I promise you
Nobody can win this trap, I must make a pact with the gods

Chorus

...shout again, spirit of the war come for you
Now your soul is free again 'cos now I've done the pact Gods of terror now captive me 'cos now I am behind... the mirror...
