(music/lyrics: Elbelman)

Go, soldiers go, go to the last of the end Swords are down 'cos the magic takes the gold...of his souls
Thinking in fight tonight - scare me a lot but it's all right
They know what's life: eight rings and fire

Chorus:

Evil's souls...waiting for my blood - Nightmares in my mind...give me the power to fight

Black death from the sky - shadows turn blind my eyes
- witchcraft make me feel - terror about this thing

Chorus

(solo 1: Achondo ; solo 2: Elbelman)

Now the world are free "Master of Rings" no more Many deaths of mine are fighting against:
