The time has come, forever we ride always against our enemies

The night is falling, the stars will arise, nothing to afraid in the fight

For this land...

The Invaders I see, the ships made of steel

Beware of the forces, beware of the beast

There is no place to hide, the field seems a hell, fire is falling from skies

[bridge]

And now... we are living to fight, now... we fight for our rights

We left our homes to follow the light, mankind will always survive

The future we had seen in the hands of a time soon to over

[chorus]

Fly, and reach the skies, somewhere the sun will shine bright on you

For the liberty, liberty, liberty again we'll fight till the end

The cruelty of war we're carrying inside proud of our ancient legacy

Screaming for mercy, my victims will die, we must protect our land

[chorus]

[solo 1(Elbelman)]

[solo 2(Atxondo)]
