[Music & Lyrics: Nazgã»l]

Mighty are the storms in which I breath
Infernal are the powers I possess

Like many times before
I ride a thought of insanity
But far away I see a dawn
A new dawn without a God

And if I'll manage to spread
These wings of an insane mind

And pass the border to another reality

Then I can be free
And forever be my own God

A journey into the unknown
Where only fires paints the skies
Where suffering is the only real
Where I will let my soul rest
Forever...
