[Music: Nazgãl Lyrics: Vampyr]

He weeps like a lamb to the slaughter
Cast down from his blooddrenched skies
Slowly we sail across the river Styx
And I hold up his head by the hair

The godforsaken water is bloodred
And the ruler of chaos stands ashore
He spreads out his blackened wings
And blasphemes sadistically the priest
I drag the worthless priest ashore
He screams endlessly in naked fear
I am an eternal veil of evil torture
And I take pleasure in his agony

He is being crucified upon a cross
And boiling blood is poured upon him
His face explodes in bursting heat
As I whip his soul a thousand times
