Satellites are falling down tonight
I see you far away
Iâ€™m floating into this inescapable bliss

Band and light, I know the symptoms of
I've got myself to blame
Iâ€™m needing you, I just donâ€™t care anymore.

Good boys never win
Good boys always follow
Good boys never win
They all fall away and you remain

Fear of flight
Iâ€™m so afraid of heights
Why are you asking why
Iâ€™m walking when my feet are never touching the ground

Good boys never win
Good boys always fellow
Good boys never win
They all fall away and you remain

Eyes wide the middle of the night
Got more money than a body got right
Riding on the "L" till the sun comes up again

You got me on your face
A big disgrace
Shakinâ€™ your feathers all over the place
You woke face down on St. Markâ€™s Avenue

What a pity for you

What a pity for you

Good boys

Good boys never win
Good boys always follow
Good boys never win

They all fall away and you remain

Eyes wide the middle of the night
Got more money than a body got right
Riding on the "L" till the sun comes up again

You got me on your face
A big disgrace
Shakin' your feathers all over the place
You woke up face down on St. Mark's Avenue

What a pity for you

What a pity for you

What a pity for you

Good boys
What a pity for you
Good boys
