All I get is rain.
Thunder clouds up above my head.
Storm warning's been posted.
Heavy weather predicted today.
There's a storm on outside.
I've been thinking about the day... it was in late september.
I thought that you would have changed my life but it's only rainy, rainy december.
I get caught in the, I get caught in the rain.
Rain rain go away, come again some other day.
Baby baby, unchain my heart!
Unchain my soul.
Let the sunshine back into my life.
Bring it on, let it roll.
Make the wind blow the clouds away, hey.
All I want is inspiration.

Let the voices within me speak.
But for now it's only rainy, rainy, rainy december.
I've had enough of this rain crying for my pain.
Let in some light again.
Make the day night again.
It's raining in my heart.
The sky is always dark.
The calm before the storm.
There was no time to warn.
Got to keep brewing on.
The water's coming in, into my heart before there was time to warn you.
I can't give up my reason, I love the change in season.
