We took too long to park the car
Ran across the street into the bar
Your face said it was four O'clock
I closed my eyes and heard a shot
The traffic light were much too hot
I walked my eyes around the block
Purple shadows were so thin
I had close my eyes again
I didn't know they were important to you
I thought that faces were a poster
Natural things, scenery
You showed me your kind of madness

Soft sounds, slip out silently
Time passenger to future shock
I closed my eyes and saw you drop
I didn't know they were important to you
I thought that faces were a poster
Natural things, scenery
Ahhhhh
