"The Only Way"

Your eyes and mine
and mouth with mine
When you catch someone's eye- look one more time
You speak with one voice- but he doesn't reply.
One more beer sailor-Thank You and goodbye
Incidentally, as it happens- ah love.

Can you understand-The Only Way
I've smoked so many cigarettes and still I don't forget-
It just hurts my head a lot.
I'm from the states- and I drink of the night
I know very well what is mine and speak some German
And drink from light to light.

(Chorus)

Hot and cold and young and old
Big and little- I want them all
From dick to dick and day to day.
I am a Berliner when in your bedroom
I'll steal your man and then we'll be together
And coming, and coming- ""The Only Way""

Your eyes and mine -and mouth with mine
When you catch someone's eye- look one more time
You speak with one voice- but he doesn't reply.
One more beer sailor, Thank You and Goodbye
Incidentally, as it happens-
In any case, naturally-
The Only Way.
