Move it, we wanna bust your radio Move it, double a shot like stereo Move it, we move the train to carry y'all Ho no no Move it, one time let's give it all a go Move it, push it on up and let it blow Move it, might be the end but you don't know Ho no no

Life is on top of all And it's my favorite I might fly with it I might drown in it I might look aside of it but I can't ignore it Don't be the ignorant Who turns his back on it And now we are in a race And now u show your face

If u can't find your place then we can show u how to send u to outer space to fly on your own

We move the train to carry y'all So u can skip the barrier And move it to your area So we can bust your radio And speak out through your speakers And scream out to the sleepers They freak out when they hear us we make beats like gorillas in this giant concrete jungle the digital monkeys on a move talking straight, we never mumble making sure your dancing feet will move

Blue Eyed Black Boy (2010)
