Times New Roman you know the type Calling me, 'Public Enemy' but don't believe the hype Tough guy like the one in, 'Star 80' wanna bait me Hook line sinker now your lady wanna date me

Gave your girl a little wink so you make a big stink Shoulder's got a chip so you flip like a Tiddlywink Know what I think?
I think you might be Darwin's missing link

Get all bent out of shape when the heat is on just like a Shrinky Dink
Bet I can take a hint better than I can take a hit Completely incompatible though I'm a pussy and you're a dick How can you hold a grudge when you can't even hold a job?

Should have known butter but you're not corn on the cob
I choose to use a song for a weapon not a sword struck a chord
If I wanted to see stars I'll watch the, 'Academy Awards' That's why I ran like a flock of seagulls why make-up like Mary Kay?
You must've given up on hair plugs 'cause now you're going toupee

All in all you're just another dick with no balls, balls,
balls
All in all you're just another dick with no balls, balls,
balls

Mama said talk this out and resolve Don't wanna be involved so gimme a call when you evolve
Doggy paddle to the shallow end of the gene pool Half wit half finished high school

Give you a piece of my mind but I know you want it splattered Heard you like your women like you

Like your shrimp you like' em battered Wife beater perfectly fitting apparel, where's your brother Daryl?
Where's your other brother Daryl?

Givin' me that Macho Man Randy Savage stare Wanna snap into a Slim Jim break my limbs but do I care?
No sorry I'm a lover not a fighter commit your crime I'll be glad to do your girlfriend I'll be glad that you do time

Here's the deal I cop a feel you cop a plea but get the maximum Now we both got records but the difference is mine's platinum Definitely showed this yellow bellied wimp limp
In your cell now though alone
When you're choking your chicken
Your chick will be choking on this chicken's bone

All in all you're just another dick with no balls, balls,
balls
All in all you're just another dick with no balls, balls,
balls

Right turn Clyde
Right turn Clyde
Right turn Clyde
