This time you wont forgive. somethings coming out of your eyes. dwelling on The fear that i hide, as i turn away, punished. somethings coming out of Your eyes, it's all lies. your love and hate, you killed the best of what's What's in me. im thinking of a way, to end all the pain. a fraction of what Will be coming. a light descends on what will be coming. you honor the lies That which you speak, but it's not for long. in other words, breaking all Ties. to cut to death. to cut to death. to cut, to bleed and die before me.
The seconds fall from the sky. it is coming, it's your time to die. and i see In my mind you'll sell your soul, then you'll die. when the fallen become the Past, i lie awake, thinking of you. i wished we could be, like it used to
Be. just me and you. you're punished.
