[Music: Bloodline; Lyrics: Set]

Admire my murdering foms
Brought to life by mingling horns
My burning path I walk - now is time to inhale thorns
The very core of my possession
Invert the Axis,
Defy creation!
Once I started into your Eye
I am not I shall become
A curse upon the earth
Bow down, pray for eternity
May it never end!
May it nver end...
Deathspell proceeds - as my need to collect souls
Till the worldsoul can take no more
As I rip the Veil - feeding moans of the Great Whore
Maya cries forevermore
Unleashing wolfish unchained desire
Your chained souls I force to Admire
Everywhere the choir resounds:
Praise hail Khaos!
Eternally unbound!
The last stab to your existece plot
Behold Jeovah left to die!
