Hear my cries of anguish
I suffered a thousand deaths but I live on in vain Out of your mind I come
I am the avenger, shapeless and faceless immortal and everlasting harred

I can see all the rivers of flames Lost in the Land of no return

Grant me the powers of light reach out to the mirror embraced by this cloudy nothingness

I can see the darker side

Shadowflame

Another sunrise swathes the earth in light you feel the fright you know I'm near beneath the cold of the frozen sun we're passing through centuries of bleakness
