Your frantic screams
Arouse my lust
As they become more shrill
Come die for me but not Before my demon seed is spilled

[Chorus:]

I thirst for your blood and I
Hunger for your flesh
I taste you as you're fading in and out of consciousness
Gnawing at your tender flesh
My fingers probe you deep red razor stripes send you
Into crimson sleep

Your sexy bleeding eyes
Cannot now see
My lips slick with your blood
I'm lapping at your face
Just like a rabid lusting dog

[Chorus]

[Solo - Clint]

The doors of death open for you
But before you reach the other side
I shall detain you for a while
Flaying off your ruined hide

[Solo - Danny]

Your life it drains away
But you've become a masterpiece
Your final chokes turn into gargles
Drowning on my seed

[Chorus]
