"Fall"

In order to rise we've gotta fall...

There's no use to hide,
There's nothing left to say
You might as well give up.

Breathe insanity
Caused by gravity
And pull the constant weight
Of responsibility.

Save all your regrets
Let them guide your steps
And help avoid the bumps

Break your dignity
And face reality
So you can make your way
Through another rainy day

It's your mistakes that make you wise
You need to fall... to rise
Learn the power of compromise...
So you can fall and then rise
So you can fall and then rise
In order to rise we've gotta fall...

If you read the past
You wont be thinking fast
Learn to take your time.

Cherish all your dreams
And jump over the schemes
Don't be afraid to try
It's the only way to fly

It's your mistakes that make you wise
You need to fall... to rise
Learn the power of compromise...
So you can fall and then rise
So you can fall and then rise
In order to rise we've gotta fall...

It's your mistakes that make you wise (there's no other Way to climb the wall)
You need to fall... to rise
Learn the power of compromise...
So you can fall and then rise
So you can fall and then rise
In order to rise we've gotta fall...

To rise we've gotta fall
To rise we've got to fall
To rise we've got to fall
In order to rise we've gotta fall
