So you think you've found the one that fits you
You said you'd never fall in love
Ah but then you see her and hits you
Like a bolt of lightning from above
Some I'm walking watching a dream
Falling apart before their eyes
Just remember as bad as it may seem
Love never really dies

Ain't nobody gonna take that away
Ain't nobody gonna tell you what to do
The only thing you can do is stay
And hope she falls in love with you
And hope she falls in love with you
Wanna let her know that you love her
And you call her on the phone
Gotta tell her there's no one above her
Can't let her think that she's alone
And you keep on pushing to make it work out
And you keep on trying to make her feel
That you're in love there ain't no doubt
The love you're feeling is so real

Chorus

And you keep on pushing to make it work out
And you keep on trying to make her feel
That you're in love there ain't no doubt
The love you're feeling is so real
