I am here, all alone, by myself
Lying in, what will be, my own hell
But I won't sympathize or even recognize the truth tonight
I am lost, out of mind...out of sight
Cut right in it takes away the pain from every bit of me
Something inside I chose to hide in my life
Past regrets I don't seem to forget

They leave me useless, tired and drained
Cut right in it takes away the pain
Calm yourself little girl
Cause you're not all alone in this world
And your hate it will make you not want to relate to anyone
Raise your hands, show them all your demands
