"Kill It"

Perserverance you'll never know,
Play your part in the fashion show!
You never stopped to give it a thought,
Wear your boots with your number one crop!
Where will you be when the years have passed?
Just spent eternity on your ass!
Your number's up and it's time to quit,
When it counted you never gave a shit!
Rules have changed, stakes are raised-
It's time to kill your bullshit ways!
Doing nothing from day to day-
It's time to kill your bullshit ways!
You live your life with blinders on,
Unconcerned with where your time has gone!
Just fuck around around and drink some beer-

Turn on the set and erase your fear!
Say you're proud of who you are,
But pride alone won't get you far,
Expect the world but never worked for shit!
Now your number's up and it's time to quit,
So when it's all said and done,
You were only around for the fun!
Without loyalty to the truth,
Growing bitter, pissed away your youth-
Where are you now since the years have passed?
Spent eternity sitting on your ass,
Your number's up and it's time to quit,
When it counted you were never worth a shit!
