Got a message from the wind today
When it blew a tear across my face
It said it
Guess it

Saw a bird sail the breeze that blows across the ridge the way I need to go It took this much of my life to know I

A wanderin
comin
The urge to go is in my blood to stay
The wind is startin

Might
in the place that I left behind but a different breeze was blowin and it just would not let me see

Now I
I guess the only thing I know is change
The winds a-startin
Guess it

A wanderin
comin
The urge to go is in my blood to stay
I
The wind is startin
