"I Love The Things You Do To Me"

There's a train in your mind on the wrong line
Running down the tracks of time
For so long
All the things that you do to get so high
You drink the sea and smoke the sky
But no more
To hide the pain inside
I love the things you do to me
I love the things you say to me
But I know I can't help you now
There's a place and you go there without me
It covers you in mystery
For so long
There's a look in your eyes heroine
I can't believe the state you're in Anymore
Despite the pain inside
I love the things you do to me
I love the things you say to me
But I know I can't help you now
