I'm getting afraid
That I just don't have it in me
Try to buy my wings
But they've just way to costly now...

I'm not saying I'm lost
But it's looking lonely
Lord knows I try
To do the things he tells me now

Don't let me drown
I'll wear your crown

If you will save me from this.

Can I ever be
The things you want of me
To make it to the morning?

Lets be honest here
We both know that I'm not an angel
Try to carry the cross
But what you think I can never tell.
