"The Stars Will Shine"

I think I walked into a trap
But I keep on coming back
I want to put this all behind
I have seen the enemy
But I know that it's only me
I seem content to walk the line

In time I know that we'll be free.
We'll kiss the sun with golden wings
And the stars will shine on me

Will I ever shine again?

Is this healing you promised, my friend?
This peace is deafening to me.
I'm sorry for these things I've done
I'm sorry that I just have not won
But I'm fighting until the end.

In time I know that we'll be free.
We'll kiss the sun with golden wings
And the stars will shine on me
