you say I have to get a real life but I'm not sure how that in making someone or other rich is any more real than making a niche for yourself

well i'm without a zack, a truth a coin, a kopeck or an elusive brass razoo but my dear rationalist don't dream i couldn't care i too grow quickly bored of the clothes i wear so maybe i should go an get a real life real like cutting a fine figure or scraping a deposit together for if, heaven forbid just suppose i cannot live on taxes and goodwill forever but how is it that the problem just doesn't seem to press while my fingers are themselves pressing hard against the neck i was sure that i'd suffered and worked as hard as anyone I knew well it seems i haven't i better damn well fix it and make it look every inch as though i do but still i'll have to go and get a real life no doubt that it will happen maybe i've put it off for too long now gonna see if i can't get something better than a... maybe i'm amidst of a real life...
