We're saving in sickness.
We're saving in health.
We can pull any nails by the head it we catch them
sleeping in the shelves.
They'll let you know.
We'd pay to not have them see our face.
It only ever brought us trouble.
No, it's better to run the show or be left holding the floor.
We don't have to hire.
We don't fire anymore.
They'll let you know if you're needed.
Don't plan tomorrow.
We know you're desperate.
We know you're desperate.
We're saving in sickness.
We're saving in health.
We can knock any nails on the head if we think.
If we suspect.
That they're thinking for themselves.
They'll let you know.
And they'll peddle faster if you slow.
So if you're needed.
Don't plan tomorrow.
We know you're desperate.
We know you're desperate.
