"The King of Outer Space"

A home-made transmitter points at the sky
Long odds on someone receiving
Still I keep faith there will come a reply
And won't stop blindly believing

(one day....)

A transformation will take place
A light illuminates my face...

Each day the world floats further away
All big and blue like it's bruising
Mankind provides so much cause for dismay
Hellbent and highly amusing

(what d'ya say..?)

A transformation will take place
A light illuminates my face
The insects swarm around in haste
I'm rushing forward in the race
I've packed a toothbrush just in case
I am the king of outer space...

baa, baa, baa, baa.....
