"All We Want"

Give me gas, if it gets too much
Not an uncommon thing, everyone does as such
Here we go, upon all fours
Got bright ideas, on how to win wars

CHORUS:

All we want, all we ever want
Is to feel something, but I just say nothing
All we want, all anybody wants
Is to feel something, but I just feel nothing

Another episode, just got binned
Next weeks repeat, sees me living in
In consequence, vitality
Struck hidden eyes, it's all over me

REPEAT CHORUS

Is to feel something, but I just feel nothing
