I don't understand
You're walking over me
All over me
To you
Well, you must be mad
And you know you are
You should have known
I'd do anything for you

So, why
Why
Can't we come together
Why

Inside my head
There's nothing left
It's all been taken out
By you
And do I care
Well, you know I do
You should have known
I'd do anything for you

So, why
Why
Can't we come together
Why

Now it's all been said
And you know it all
Then you should have known
I'd do anything for you

For you
