Please excuse my tendency to colour everything I tell you
You don't understand it takes me wherever I want to go
This is showing what I mean but I don't know a thing that way
And in the end
I can't help feeling that (?)

CHORUS:

I've got time to build you up so tall you won't fall down on me (x2)
Down on me

you
But in my mind there's nothing that really ever holds us from the truth
So I build my eye and I have you do the same for me In the end, I can't help feeling just to (?)

REPEAT CHORUS

I've got time to build you up so tall you won't fall down
on me (x4)
Down on me
