Wash with new soap
Behind the collar
Keeps a clean mental state
Don't usually bother in cold weather
But still I'm getting into work late

And I don't need the practice

I've been making plans
(For the future)
Become an unconscious man
(All for the good)
I feel so unnecessary
(We don't think so, you seem starshaped)

Have a couple at the weekend
Keeps up camaradery
And my mind boggles in the muddle
At the possibilities

And I don't need the practice

I've been making plans
(For the future)
Become an unconscious man
(All for the good)
I feel so unnecessary
(We don't think so, you seem starshaped)

And I've been making plans
(For the future)
Become an unconscious man
(All for the good)
I feel so unnecessary
(We don't think so, you seem starshaped)

I wash with new soap behind the collar
Helps keep down the laundry
And now I bother in cold weather
Because it cleans me mentally

And I really don't need the practice

I've been making plans
(For the future)
Become an unconscious man
(All for the good)
I feel so unnecessary
(We don't think so, you seem starshaped)
I've been making plans
(For the future)
Become an unconscious man
(All for the good)
I feel so unnecessary
(We don't think so, you seem starshaped)
