This is my workplace
And these are the people
I work with Yuko and Hiro
We work together
We work for the company
That looks to the future
We work hard to please them
They will protect us
I never see you
We're never together
I'll love you forever
I drink in the evenings
It helps with relaxing
I can't sleep without drinking
We drink together
From Monday to Saturday
I go to my workplace
But on Sunday we're together
Yuko and Hiro
I never see you (I never see you)
We're never together (We're never together)
I'll love you forever (forever... forever... forever)
[Some girl singing and speaking in (I assume)
Japanese]
I never see you (I never see you)
We're never together (We're never together)
I never see you (I never see you)
We're never together (We're never together)
I'll love you forever (forever... forever... forever)
[More Japanese singing]
