Oh, hush your mouth
Oh, hush your mouth

Hey, little baby, don't you cry
Mama went down town buyin' [Incomprehensible]
Hey little baby don't say a word
Mama gonna whoop you 'bout somethin' she heard

Oh, hush your mouth
Oh, hush your mouth

Mama gonna buy you a diamond ring
If that diamond ring is brass
Mama gonna buy a lookin' glass
If that lookin' glass is broke
Mama gonna buy a horse and coach

Oh, hush your mouth
Oh, hush your mouth
Oh, hush your mouth
Oh, hush your mouth

If that horse and coach turn over
Mama gonna buy you a dog named Rover

Oh, hush your mouth
Oh, hush your mouth

A coonskin alligator hide
Gonna make into shoes baby, just' like mine
Don't be afraid to put 'em on your feet
Shoes I've got just' can't be beat

Hush your mouth
Hush your mouth
Hush your mouth, baby
Hush your mouth
Hush your mouth, darling
