Scoring

Lyrics by Jasmine Rodgers

Music by b?a

Score the lines in a deepening order

Score them deep just to make sure you told her

Destructive rage, it's just easier to be that way

At least you never have to eat the words you say

I take pleasure in being all alone

I save passion in making it on my own

I will never be, taken by your humility

I will never fall on my knees

Bear the weight of the world as you told her

But it weighs heavy on a wounded shoulder

Sow the petals on a dying flower

At least you know that she will stay in your power

I take pity, on those who can't see clearly

You take pleasure, in making it hard to see

I will never be taken by your humility

I will never fall on my knees

Make sure she's breathing

Make sure she's feeling

Make sure she's responding to you now

So you can tell her the score

Make sure she's breathing

Make sure she's feeling

Make sure she's responding to you now

So you can hurt her all the more

I will never be beaten by your brutality

I will never be shaken by your stupidity
