Bamboo

"Carousel"

Picture perfect
Starting to hold on
To these new eyes
My (my) worlds drawn out in crayon
All the lives we come across
We shine a light to see our own

Remember back to every story told
Who you were
Before the rush hour
Carousel
Dared to see the world
With your own two eyes
So you've made mistakes
Now who's wide awake
It's a tidal wave

Our worlds collide
Become one in the starlight
Forget perfect endings
Let's dare and live for the day
Today
Today's like no other

Words come alive
In the story of our time
Let's all quit pretending
Let's dare and live for the day
Today
Today's like no other

I am home

Hit a wall
But there ain't no shutting this door
We're gonna live
Keep faith
We gonna soar soar soar
To a higher ground
We charge to claim our own

Remember back to every story told
Who you were
Before the rush hour
Carousel
Dare to see the world with your own two eyes
Yeah you've made mistakes
Now who's wide awake
It's a tidal wave

Hello world
Forget what's the play
But we're gonna look to shake this rust away

Our worlds collide
Become 1 in the starlight
Forget perfect endings
Today

'Cause I'm just gonna live my life
Pick up the pieces
Of what's been left behind
Bring back the memories
Of that special time
No doubt
No fear
No question I know what's gotten me here
My sweet escape
Hello long goodbyes

I am

Our worlds collide
Forget perfect endings
Let's dare and live for the day
Today
Today's like no other

Words come alive
In the story of our time
Let's all quit pretending
Let's dare and live for the day
Today
Today's like no other

I am home

Remember who you are
Remember who you are

I am, I am, I am
Home

Our words come alive
In the story of our time
Between wish and the waiting
