Red sun dawn
Guns are drawn
Skull and bones
Beast of war
Father help me stop this
Rush of blood to the head
I look at you and I see red
Start the game
I'll end it
By this hate that you help the world create
I've been sent
Now repent
I'm the war that comes to you
I'm the plague that follows through
I've been told
You've been warned
To stop the hatred you have spawned
The qualms you have are stupid
By this movement manifest
Lord now put you to the test
Yet you fail
Now the blind that follow you
Will burn in hell with you
All by myself
I know that I stand here alone
All your lies they feed
I'm stronger now
Stronger now than I was before
There's no way you can
Hurt me
Move me
Stop me
Talk too much mutherfucker hush
You had your chance to change things
Move in the direction of right
Choose to set the bad
But then you had to pick a fight
So what's daddy done for you lately?
Bought you the throne

Like stealing candy from a baby
Line your pockets with mucho dinero

Paid in full with the blood of the people
So now you got the fires rockin
Blood and hate
Then you got the people talking
Legacy
You will never be forgotten
Your place in history
A black mark in time
Hurt me
Move me
Stop me
Peace and flowers
Will kill the superpower
The fall of Rome is near
Can't you hear
It's been written, it's been said
The signs are here
The revelations I have read
Those days are over
Walk away from the line
For now is the time
All by myself
I know that I stand here alone
Stronger now than I was before
Hurt me
Move me
Stop me
