This is the time to follow their orders
This is the time to ignore your Pain
Never asked for your own comfort
Never tried to find your own way
Rigor Mortis, sleeping silent
Lying in coma, wake among dead

You always walked this way
Forever you will stay
No more things to say
Dieing 'til your day

There is a chance to follow your passion
There is a time to cry out your pain
You may ask if there is something
You may try to find your own way
Rigor Mortis, searching silent
Lying in coma, walk among dead

You always walked this way
Forever you will stay
No more things to say
Dieing 'til your day

Rigor Mortis - sleeping silent - wake among dead -
dieing till your day

You always walked this way
Forever you will stay
No more things to say
Dieing till your day
I always walked my way
No longer i can stay
No more things to say
Dieing till my day
